COMPILER'S NOTE

Previous to 1876 the names of the Alumni of the Seminary were published in Triennial Catalogues without biographical details. In 1876 there appeared the first edition of the General Catalogue compiled by the late Rev. Edwin Francis Hatfield, D.D., for many years Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. Later editions appeared in 1886, 1898, and 1908 under the present editorship. These were compiled on the original plan, simply with the incorporation of new material and additional records. The present edition departs from the previous practice in giving details as to the members of the Faculty and of the teaching force from the beginning. In only three cases are these records, covering 109 names, inadequate.

Numerous changes have been made in the records, based on information furnished by individuals. In each case a clipping from the last edition of the General Catalogue accompanied the inquiry-blank, and in this way a larger degree of accuracy has been made possible. Every effort has been made to secure replies directly from members of the alumni-body, and only when repeated requests have met with no response, has recourse been had to such data as might be secured from the minutes of ecclesiastical bodies and the various clergy lists. In nearly all the cases where this has been done, note of the fact is appended. The method is unsatisfactory, but there was no alternative open.

Every effort has been made to ensure accuracy in the records. The proof has been read with the utmost care, but in spite of all endeavors many minor errors will have crept in. Where such a mass of details as to names and figures is involved any other result is not to be expected. This is the only excuse which the editor can offer, an excuse which the experienced person will appreciate, though he will not need to have it stated.

Aside from the additional new matter incorporated in this edition, and the correction of minor errors pointed out in the previous records, the old material has been reproduced. No effort has been made to alter geographical designations to make them correspond to present conditions. The names of States, Territories, and countries are given as they were when the record was first made, not as they would appear if made to-day. Furthermore, no serious attempt has been made to secure absolute and unvarying consistency in notation. Each record is to be judged by itself without reference to another record, perhaps its neighbor. In some cases this lack of consistency is to be traced to the expressed desire of the individual rather than to the inadvertence of the compiler.

New material received during the progress of the printing has been incorporated, some of the later items as late as April, 1919. It is a matter of regret that complete information has not been obtainable in regard to the war-work done by some of the alumni. Doubtless the failure to receive response in a large number of cases was due to absence from the country or absorption in duties of pressing character. Only such work has been included in the record as was done in official capacity under governmental auspices. A fuller statement was published in the Seminary Bulletin in May, 1918, showing the activity of members of the alumni-body to the time of printing, but it is inadequate as a complete record, though it occupied sixteen octavo pages of fine print.

Under each year two alphabetical lists will be found. The first contains the names of graduates who obtained the diploma or degree; the second, the names of special and graduate students whose stay was shorter than the regular three years of residence. But all are counted among the alumni, as matriculation, not graduation furnishes the test. In the case of some classes the names of some are found in the second alphabet though they actually spent three years in the Seminary, because the rules in force at the time prevented them from being counted as "regular" students.

In each case the effort has been made to account for all of the years of a man's life, but in a good many cases there are gaps. These are due to incomplete return from the individual, and are not the fault, but the misfortune, of the compiler.

It is hoped that in a majority of cases the abbreviations used will be found to be self-explanatory; if not, the extensive table following this note must be consulted. The asterisk has its usual significance; the obelus has been employed to indicate those who are unknown or who have failed to reply to repeated letters of inquiry. No effort has been spared to obtain information about those thus marked, but without success.

Single dates after the name of a college indicate the year of graduation; hyphenated dates indicate the length of college residence, without graduation. In the case of Seminary attendance the dates are hyphenated;

a single date means attendance during a single term, and usually the context will indicate whether it was the Fall or Spring term.

Only in a few cases has the B.A. degree been noted, where there seemed to be special reason for it. Ordinarily it is to be understood in connection with a graduation date. Other earned degrees are indicated, such as B.S., B.Ph., B.Lit, and the like. No attempt has been made to record the M.A. degree when given "in course," but the degree when earned or conferred "honoris causa" has been inserted. Honorary degrees are noted, with the name of the institutions which conferred them, together with the date, where these items were available.

The full date of ordination is given when it could be ascertained. Recourse has been had frequently to ecclesiastical records for supplementing or correcting infirmities of memory. Not infrequently correspondence with clerks of presbytery, diocese or church has been necessary. In all cases where it was possible to obtain the fact, the name of the ordaining body has been recorded. The denominational connection of any settlement is shown or is understood to be the same as in the preceding entry or entries. Change is indicated by the insertion of the new in brackets. Wherever possible the name of the particular church served, has been given. In the case of the earlier alumni, however, this was not possible except rarely.

INDEX OF GRADUATES AND OTHER STUDENTS

Figures alone indicate the year of graduation. Preceded by "p" (partial course), or "g" (graduate student), the reference is to the class with which the student was associated, and the record will be found in the second alphabetical list under the year indicated. In all cases the first two figures are omitted, as no one will be misled in finding the reference. The asterisk has its usual significance; the obelus indicates those who are unknown or whose whereabouts it has not been possible to ascertain.
